

Future of European Union

HP Hooded Cobra 666

February 07, 2019

In essence, what the jews are doing with the European Union is plain and simple. Many people are dumbfounded by jewish jockery, but you don't have to be.

By default, only people who are born in a nation, and as thus, accustomed to a certain lifestyle, belonging to a certain set of life and species, and bonded to a particular land, are interested on the future of this land, language, and their general existence. Even when they can be dumbfounded, still, only these people can defend these rights, and nobody else really would bother. The rest can simply pack up and leave away from this land, and go where they belong, if anything hits the fan.

Any improvement ever done was because of this soil - people relationship, and this extends further into race. Those who pack up and leave a continent at the first states of distress and disaster, never facilitate any change, they are just going around and round, and historically, this causes no change. It's just freeloading on where others died. Such as these Europeans who died to the last person defending the rights of the White European race, for which now, they are attacked posthumously for decades. Who warned of things like that.

As for those coming in, as in illegal migrants, temporaries and others, for them, giving them whatever kind of lifestyle other than being incapacitated in the middle of the street as is done in many of their own countries, looks heavenly. So, at a first perspective, all these people always accept the wrongdoings and rights destruction of native populations.

In many ways, the limiting of the rights and even existence of native populations, is actually in conjunction to all that is beneficial to foreign populations or others. For example, if the native "Curbs his racism", you can fuck his daughter, finally, and marry into his family. If he accepts you in his neighborhood, you can finally sell meth to his kids. If he accepts you in his heart and civilization, you can shit in it, or rally around like a mob under the support of jews like Soros, always asking for extra rights. This is how these things go, my fellow goyim. A truth one really has to accept and move on.

So everyone has to, in the end of the day, look for 'their' rights, and their tribal rights. Yes, the same tribal rights that people pretend we have moved so much forward, simply because everyone is censored to speak. Let us give all races the podium to speak freely without the fear of incarceration, and full power, and let's see what the results of all this presented and force 'love' is going to be.

The reality is, many people would like to Rambo mode at this present time, as many people feel already too much like shit. I guess the solution is more Love and more Sedatives, until the mind of the goyim collapses, and one either loses their civilization through weed coma, or decides to go Guerilla mode as some form of last stand. Long story short, nobody likes to see their nations, races, and cultures, overrode, destroyed, and even if we could avoid it as nature intended by being on the place we should be; indeed, we want to push through this.

"God" make last our sedatives, our lies, and our delusions, until our civilizations collapse through our weed coma, and we gain our place in Heaven, fellow Whitey. Yes, not the same God I believe in, as I believe in our ancestral Gods, but this other jewish guy. The giver of all lies and sedatives, and the greatest and most gruesome of all soul and body killers: Jesus Christ.

The jews are going to play the victims in a few years when people will want to, out of rage, program this race out of the planet for everything it has caused. They will pretend it is so unfounded that people in towns taken over and racially assimilated will want to hang them in pikes. Finally, they will pretend that it is impossible that people may go full Nazi mode again. Because as we can see, every time the jew fucks up past the boundary, and causes these situations, the jew always pretends to never seen it coming.

So instead of accepting a few fundamental truths, it appears, sedation goes a long way. A long way into what appears will be cataclysmic events against freedoms, mass repression, replacement, and destruction. Indeed, such event would force everyone to wake up. You have to be progressive with it, extinctions do not happen at once, and Rome wasn't Destroyed in a day. You have to eat its foundations first. The rodent race knows very well how to go about this. It has to not be known. If the news does not report it, it didn't even happen!

And that is enough to mobilize all sorts of hordes against the natives, which by their mere existence and systemic pressure on multiculturalism, do in anyway displace the natives. This is happening in many European countries.

In the above situation, or when you have Hajis who want to blow kids to bits, you also have the great excuse that all Mega States are seeking in order to invade all personal privacy of citizens, and invent all sorts of regressive middle ages laws. "If Hajis want to blow you away, we have to really get in your phones and PC's to prevent terrorist attacks".

The multi racialism in a society creates a condition where all races (divided in separate interest groups) are all advocating for what is beneficial to them. Only a marginal percent of people on either side do truthfully suck on the multiracial pill, as the backbone of our biology is racial. Slowly, these fake ass Star Trek societies are plunged in criminality going from and towards all places.

The fate of all multiracial societies, has been argued to be a 'fairer' society, but let us translate what this "FAIR" governance means: MORE IMPERSONAL. The more impersonality and detachment of authority (and the adding of the jews as the sole interest racial group which precedes over this situation) only makes for brutal societies, which essentially are always fertile (Due to IQ differences and cultural differences) to always have enough slaves, enough retards to rally around for Soros, ever increasing numbers of battalions that those in power can rally towards anyone else.

The situation that many do not want to accept, as those who are self-brainwashed into Christianity and it's dreams of "Heaven", and project these here as a technological "evolution" of the future, is that the more we move away from 'resource wars', there is not going to be some form of other competition, or warfare, or other things for which people or groups will want to fuck up and leverage other people about. As far as I can see in Britain, the only reason the preparing Haji Armies are not taking over in direct warfare, is they have to work for daily bread. Remove this, and the next topic will be if you have accepted the Prophet as your personal pedophile Lord and Savior.

In other words, where some argue that we are "DEVELOPING", I argue that we are not only regressing, but I can see clearly where Europe will be in a few decades time from now, if this situation is not stopped. If you haven't noticed, when the jews are pushing "Cultural Change", they aren't removing the religion of Muslims, nor they ban Mosques.

They just teach young Europeans how to bend on all fours and be tolerant when their kids at 10 years old have muslim knives on their throats on what otherwise was supposed to be 'school'. The cultural change of Europe and "Cultural Appropriation" is for Whitey, to learn to be appropriate of a cuck in order to die and be annihilated into his own homelands and countries, by hordes that want to out breed him as cancer out-breeds a body and kills it.

We all are aware here this is for mongrelization. The situation is that aside from the biological threat here, and the obvious crime against extinction, we have to face two other facts. These people will be lost, rootless, and without any rights or expectations. "Kalergi Children of a New World". The type of children you can easily entrap and enslave as your new Kalergi style mongrelized European stock, so they can be one of your 2800 Talmudic slaves, type of deal.

Despite of what pills and how much weed many "Europeans" are sinking in, the "European Union" is devising two decisive plans, and has been doing so for decades, in order to control population. One of these is the creation of a "European Army" who will, supposedly, defend "European Interests". Ie, as we can see now, the interests of self-appointed jews who rave about Democratic systems.

If you have a European Army, some can argue you can have a European Police, or let's say, a European FBI, that will be nothing but the Russian Cheka, and will go around and abduct people that have been found as thought dissidents, and making them disappear. Currently, this is not fundamentally possible, but the jews are trying to work around a solution here. This has already started happening on the web, and all platforms where the jews can get their hands on, and legal systems. The weaponization of this is the only logical next step.

The second plan is far more obscure and extends in ultimate control of the subjects as is the case in the USA, where all the above excuses already existed. Those who have lived before 1999, can see how much the world has changed because of the so called "Terrorism" the jews have done as an inside job. In the land of the Free, there is a camera and the eye of Sauron looking at all disobedient Goyim 24/7.

Other than that, let me tell you of some developments you will not find in the news. All over Europe, there is a whole systemic change that is going on. I have not seen this in any news, and nobody decided to cry about this subject. Most people just want to cry for the mainstream useless bullshit tears. Protesting in Haji Jew Occupied Europe is becoming ILLEGAL and every protester will be PROFILED in Europe from now on.

The Yellow Vests and the Goyim Waking has the jews not only wanting to profile every protester, but also, putting forth the technology for it. Where are the so-called socialist garbage leftist Journalists of Europe now that don't even make a fuss about this, but are so readily ready to cry about anything else irrelevant on top of the planet? Nowhere. All they know to cry about is some bullshit about 60 million Genders, and some occasional lampshades.

And some sort of Nazi "Secret Police" which was so terrible.

"But now we are living in the Free times. Everyone is Free. The Lovely Free state will provide your food. I mean, if we haven't seen you hanging around some Yellow Vests on some shit. You have to Trust us goyim. It's for the greater good. After all, we will provide for your Nutrition, as we provide for your Security. For example, we will stop Terrorist attacks that we are creating by importing millions of Terrorists in Europe - all for your OWN good goyim.

Listening to us goyim, your birthrate is now kinda low, which is our doing. Our solution is for you to brown up that skin a little bit. We are all humans of this world after all, well, at least, you goyim are. We are evolving you to a better and greater species (For ourselves and our use). What is there not to trust about centralized mega states with paranoid jews on top of them?"

Do not stress it goyim. We are going into great developments. For example, we will be able to feed all the goyim of the planet with the push of a button. But, at the same time, profile the complaining evil goyim likewise with the push of a button. Freedom is a bummer, right? May not always be what it seems, is it?

A Beautiful name company - Brain chip. And what is BRAIN CHIP company giving us? More Freedom - of course. The tool that the new Kalergi Primate will have as its own tool like hammer and fire: A microchip inside it's shrunken, genetically altered brain:

Now tell me, don't you think Macaroni has ordered a lot of cameras to put around? Because I think he does. If you check the date of the article, all of a sudden, Europe is creating an Orwellian based face recognition system, and outlaws all forms of protesting. But don't be silly and a conspiracy theorist goyim it's all a huge coincidence.

Brain Chip AI-Powered Video Analytics Now Avail to European Govts (Videos)

Law enforcement agencies require a way to rapidly sift through terabytes of recorded video to identify and track complex characteristics of suspects and witnesses, including faces and patterns on clothing.

“The fact that Brain Chip Studio is being successfully utilized by government agencies highlights the benefits it can offer to other security agencies,” commented Guillaume Tissot, Co-founder and President of SoftCryptum.

“With a solid network of contacts in Law Enforcement, Defense and Intelligence Agencies, our company is well positioned to help promote, install and support Brain Chip’s AI-powered software and hardware solutions.”

“Brain Chip’s Director of EMEA Sales, Luis Coello, added: “We are delighted to enter into this reseller agreement with SoftCryptum.”

This new partnership strengthens the visibility of BrainChip Studio in European government agencies and improves operational and sales efficiency for our business.”

SoftCryptum has long-established relationships within many government entities, and we expect to see many new customers implement our technology as a result.”

Brain Chip Studio software enables instant training of many types of objects and patterns in the field, 20 times faster than a human operator.
