

Ignorance is Bliss?

The Jewtrix keeps repeating: ignorance is bliss. Be ignorant to the occult, be politically in Judaic ignorance, be ignorant in how to survive, be as ignorant as possible. Satan the insight is the Devil. Awareness is your enemy. Care your own worst fiend that kills all the rainbow possibilities that your TV promised you. Jews your guides and friends.

Jane is a BBC channel interviewed hottie. Jane just loves race mixing. Jane also dropped out of school to become a stripper. Jane loves BBC. According to Nathanael Shekelstein Jane is a very rich and happy lady. She is the perfect Torah victim. A prototype for all young girls. Rumor has it maybe she was knifed one night by a client in the strip club, but who cares Jane was blissfully ignorant. She saw on TV it would be OK and really fun. As we know the TV never lied to anybody- she was too busy to think!

So the enemy always pushes this lie that ignorance is bliss. Showing happy go lucky in televisions, or other lackeys who are the definition of what it means to be ignorant as the path to life, wealth, riches or even success. The examples are infinite.

Luck does not imply unawareness. Luck implies In fact, unconscious calculation for one's benefit. It's unrelated to ignorance. You do not need to be ignorant to be lucky, as you don't need to be unfortunate to be considerate.

So here we have Tom. Tom is blissfully ignorant. He literally passes that street with complete ignorance. Here we have a fire truck coming down. Well, Tom died. He is now blissful in heaven. He was listening too much to Jews who told him to be blissfully ignorant. Was reading too much of a guru that stated the physical was not important. His wish worked. He is no longer in it. Good job Tom. Yer Guru must be happy. Moskha has been attained.

Here we have May. May was blissfully ignorant her whole life, did not discern between Criminals, or drug dealers for a lover. She literally loved anyone in her life. May found herself diagnosed with AIDS last week. May will die a horrible death. Oh, she is also pregnant now, with the kid of a thug. She loved everybody but took it a bit too literal. Doesn't matter may only A jewish gawd can judge You. Fuck the system!

When I was a young pal, I was one time taken to a small chicken farm in a small village. So it was a small family feast and a person decided to take me into the kitchen farm to see the chickens. He wore the gloves, took the sharpened knife, put the boots on, and went into the chicken farm. I was watching from the fence curiously and a bit worried. Here he comes in and chicken started flying around all over the place, until one chicken was locked into the corner due to not caring all that much. He took it by the back and brought it to the slaughter. All the other chicken who were alerted lived to see another day. The blissful ignorant, fat one, was the first to die. The others lived to see another day.

Moral of the story? If you are alert and you react, you heighten your chances of existence and survival. Blissful ignorance only heightens the chances of the jews to survive. This is why it's promoted. Ignorance and lies kill millions every day.

People in Africa are blissfully ignorant in regards to their roots thanks to the jews. They are now having longtime suffering due to this. Europeans became forcibly ignorant to their culture in the Middle Ages. And half of Europe died, while the remaining alive were in civil wars for around 1000 years. Even the 'foolish ol' peasant' equally suffered famine and death. The God of the ignorant was nowhere to help either.

So many blissfully ignorant people are also the first to die by Tsunamis and all sorts of other natural disasters. If they had some intuition, but of course Satan forbid they don't, maybe they could have evacuated the place. Intuition is of Satan though. The Farm animals do not need intuition. Imagine if the chickens in the chicken farm had intuition. Or even managed to group up and assault this dead family friend of mine. They would peck his eyeballs out, being so many as they were.

Nearly all problems in life can be prevented by correct thought, preparation, and even when unforeseen circumstances strike, awareness, knowledge and maturity. Ignorance is death. All beings who are ignorant invite death and suffering. Ignorance is also bliss...for jews: that which makes the jews sleep at night, knowing that the planet is still sleeping. An infinite supply of asleep cattle, ready to be butchered. The enemy on themselves try to have their 'eyes' and awareness everywhere. For the 'goyim', the dumb will go to heaven.

Awareness is Bliss. Symbolized by Satan. Who is a universal symbol of Luciferian insight and awareness.

IGNORANCE IS DEATH. Symbolized by an imposter Jew who trolls the non-jews in the Bible. And then ascends with his own jews to rule the animals with an iron rod. It's also called Christianity, also known as cucktianity.

Ignorance is a Bliss? Where?
