

Page for Newbies Needed

Let's contribute on this thread to create a mega - full place for every newcomer, including:

1. All the necessary JoS links
2. All the necessary backups one must have
3. Any extra /FAQ/ or important posts
4. Anything else that may be necessary

This page will be permanently moved on the bar above in the forums, so that new people can easily access everything in a single click and start their studying and journey in Spiritual Satanism.

There have been similar posts and attempts done before, but I cannot find them. Please post them here so we create a mega page where all of this is in one place.
